JUST ELEVEN.

BY PRIVATE MILES O'BILEY. Three years ago to-day )
We raised our hands to Heaven,
And on the rolls of muster,
Our names were thirt-seven; There were just a thousand bayonets, And the swords were thirty-seven, As se took the oath of service, Withour right hands raised to Heaven.

Oh, twas a gailant day.
In memory still adored,
That day of sun-bright unptials
With the musket and the award!
Simil rang the fife, the bugles biared,
And beneath a cloudless Heaven
Teinkled a thousand bayonets,
And the And the swords were thirty-seven.
